Student visa and COVID-19 requirements:

In order to study in Israel you will need an A/2 Student Visa. Applications for visas are to be made at an Israeli Embassy or Consulate abroad. The Student Visa is valid for up to one year and for multiple entrances and exits. Spouses and children will also be granted visas.

In order to be granted a visa you will need to provide the following documents:

1. Completed and signed application for a visa to enter Israel (Link)
2. Two passport pictures (5x5 cm) A formal letter of acceptance from a recognized higher education institution in Israel including start date of your studies
3. Proof that the student has the financial means to pay for her/his studies and subsistence throughout the stay in Israel
4. A travel document (e.g. passport) that is valid for at least one year, provided that the home country has a diplomatic mission in the State of Israel. If there is no such mission in Israel, the passport must be valid for the entire period of studies and another six months beyond that
5. Fee payment (click here to open the table of fees).

Rolling updates on COVID-19 including policies of entry into Israel can be found on the Population and Immigration Authority website.
